

ART NOT BANNED IN BOSTON

Including a day in Cambridge with Professor Robert Mowry

Museums and Private Collections in the Boston Area

October 5 - 10, 2015

Come travel to Boston this October with the Society for Asian Art and see beautiful art as well as experience the famed New England fall season. Covering Boston, Cambridge, and Salem, we'll explore some of the most important art museums in the country. We are extremely fortunate that the very popular Arts of Asia lecturer, Professor Robert Mowry, will be with us when we tour the much lauded Renzo Piano-redesigned Harvard Art Museums. Other trip highlights include:

- Touring the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, considered one of the most comprehensive art museums in the world with a collection encompassing nearly 450,000 works of art. We can look forward to curator- led walk-throughs of both the Japanese and Chinese galleries. We will also have the opportunity to see their Asian art conservation lab.
- Viewing the Chinese and East Asian art galleries at the Peabody Essex Museum in historic Salem in addition to touring the museum's renowned Asian export art collection. The Peabody Essex traces its roots back to 1799 and has the only complete Qing Dynasty house outside China.
- Visiting the homes of two collectors and having the opportunity to see their private collections of contemporary Japanese ceramics and Chinese furniture.

Robert Mowry.....

Senior Consultant on Chinese and Korean Art at Christie's, the well-known international auction house, Robert Mowry was previously the Alan J. Dworsky Curator of Chinese Art and head of the Department of Asian Art at the Harvard Art Museums; he also served as Senior Lecturer in Harvard's Department of the History of Art and Architecture, teaching courses on Chinese and Korean art. He accompanied SAA members on our recent trip to Korea.
